JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - Freshman Jenny Allen's goal in the 60th minute sent the Armstrong State University women's soccer squad to a 1-0 exhibition victory at Division I Jacksonville University on Sunday afternoon at Southern Oak Stadium in Jacksonville, Fla.

The Pirates and Dolphins played a scoreless first 45 minutes of soccer, with Armstrong enjoying an 8-2 edge in shots before intermission. In the second half, it was a heady play by another freshman, Amanda Green, that led to the only goal of the game.

Green took advantage of a defensive miscue to dribble the ball into the box on the right side. A simple stutter-step drew the goalkeeper off her line and the defender from the middle of the box, and a slotted pass across goal found the foot of Allen, who poked the ball home from eight yards out for the tally.

Jacksonville had several chances to tie the contest, especially in the final 10 minutes. One goal off of a corner kick was disallowed for offsides, and the Dolphins hit the crossbar in the final three minutes, but Armstrong was able to clear and preserve the clean sheet.

The Pirates finished the contest with a 13-12 edge in shots as well as a 7-6 edge in corner kicks. All three of Armstrong's goalkeepers combined on the clean sheet as Maggie Carson led with a pair of saves. Hannah Allerton for Jacksonville made five saves in 90 minutes of work.

Allen had three shots, including the goal, to pace the Pirates. Sarah Olin and Ashley Green had two shots apiece, while Kaitlyn Bassett led the Dolphins with five shots.

Armstrong opens up the 2014 regular season on Friday, September 5, hosting Catawba at 3:30 p.m. at the Armstrong Soccer Field.
